Description:

Review "As all CAS panels sit in Switzerland, in reviewing CAS awards the Swiss Federal Tribunal has become the world's sports court of last resort (a true "spes, ultima dea"!). As its jurisprudence is of enormous relevance for sports law practitioners -- arbitrators and advocates alike -- the Swiss International Sports Arbitration Reports is an extremely valuable resource and an essential addition for any sports law library. I definitely recommend it to anyone involved in sports law and arbitration at national or international level." --- Massimo Coccia, CAS arbitrator; Partner, Coccia De Angelis & Associati, Rome, Italy

About the Author About the Editors:

Paolo Michele Patocchi, a Partner with Lenz & Staehelin, is a Swiss qualified attorney-at-law. He regularly represents parties as counsel before arbitral tribunals and has been acting as an arbitrator in a number of European jurisdictions under arbitration rules such as the ICC Rules, the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules, the Swiss Rules, the Rules of the Chamber of Arbitration of Milan, the Rules of the Hungarian Chamber of Commerce and Industry and the ICSID Additional Facility Rules. Dr. Patocchi has also acted as a mediator under the ICDR International Dispute Resolution Procedures. He was the first Chairman of the National Arbitration Committee as well as the Special Committee of the Swiss Chambers of Commerce (administering arbitrations and deciding on challenges of arbitrators under the Swiss Rules of International Arbitration).

Matthias Scherer, a Partner at Lalive, is regularly appointed as counsel or arbitrator in arbitration proceedings under the auspices of leading arbitration institutions including the ICC, ICSID, Swiss Chambers of Commerce, the LCIA and the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce. He is a past member of the Arbitration Committee of the Swiss Chambers of Commerce, and served as a vice chair of the IBA Arbitration Committee.
