Description:

Book Description Intent on total destruction, Satan notices Cain's obsessive lust for Lilith and the dark roots of jealousy growing deep in his soul toward his do-gooding brother Abel. Satan goads him to the point of madness, barraging his mind with thoughts of hatred, lust, and futility. In a blinding rage, Cain wrecks everything. Wracked with shame, he flees into the vast wilderness, unable to possess the one thing he truly desires—Lilith. His life is destroyed, and he wonders if he will ever find his way back. He longs for refuge, and wonders if he will ever find God again?

About the Author Melinda Viergever Inman is a church Bible-study leader and speaker, and has been journaling for nearly thirty years and is now a full time writer. Writing is her ministry and her passion. Since 2005, Melinda has been writing Bible studies for her church, and plans to market them at ShowKnowGrow.com, where she authors a bi weekly inspirational blog. She shepherds spiritual growth for the women of her church, teaches in prison ministry, and studies theology. Melinda has published inspirational articles for David C. Cook and Christian Devotions.
